

Chủ đề 5: TRAVELLING ABROAD

Mục tiêu cần đạt được của bài dạy về kiến thức, kỹ năng

Về kiến thức:

- + Biết các cụm từ chỉ các loại hình du lịch phổ biến và từ vựng liên quan đến đi du lịch nước ngoài
- + Hiểu cách dùng của "can" và "have to" để nói về những việc có thể thực hiện được và việc cần thiết phải làm

Về kỹ năng:

- + Sinh viên đọc hiểu được văn bản ngắn và đơn giản về thông tin dành cho khách du lịch
- + Sinh viên nói được kỳ du lịch mà mình yêu thích

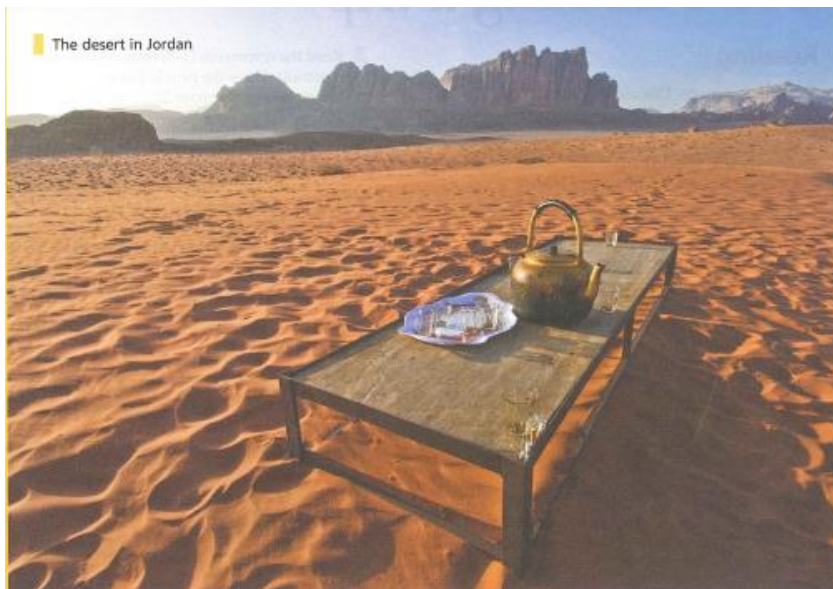

Số tiết: 5

5.1 My holidays (2 tiết)

5.1.1 Vocabulary: Types of holiday

Warm-up

Look at the photo. Why do you think the table is in the desert?

Possible answers: The table could be there because desert people are having tea, or it could be there to make a good photo, or to feed a tour group.

LEAD-IN

Do you often go on holiday?

If yes, what types of holiday do you like? Do you like a beach holiday?

Besides the beach holiday, what other types of holiday do you know?

Today, you are going to learn types of holiday. Let's study them.

Exercise 1: Listen to a man talk about his holiday in Jordan. Why was the table in the desert? What happened?

Answers: The speaker met some Bedouin who lived in tents in the desert. They put the table outside and made tea. They drank tea together and watched the sun go down.

Exercise 2: Look at the pictures of holiday types. Match each type of holiday with its correct picture.

backpacking

a sightseeing tour

hiking in the mountains

a camping holiday

a package holiday by the beach

a city tour on the bus

Exercise 3: Which of these holidays in Exercise 2 did the man take?

Answers: backpacking around the world

Exercise 4: Match the each type of holiday with the typical activities you can do.

1. a camping holiday	a. You travel to many countries and staying in hostels with all your things in a backpack.
2. a backpacking holiday	b. You walk on long way in the mountains, enjoying nature and beautiful views.
3. a sightseeing tour	You don't need to plan for it because all are arranged by a travel company.
4. a package holiday	You travel on a bus that stops at famous places in a city for you to learn about its history and culture.
5. hiking in the mountains	You go and look at interesting things or places, often with a guide.
6. a city tour on the bus	You stay in a tent, usually in nature, and enjoy outdoor activities.

5.1.2. Speaking

Exercise 1: Work in groups. Look at the holidays in Exercise 2 again and discuss these questions.

- Which holidays do you prefer?
- Which holidays have you done in the past?
- Which holidays are you going to do in the future?

I prefer package holidays to hiking in the mountains because I like to relax on holiday.

I've never been on a camping holiday.

I'm going backpacking round Ireland next summer.

5.1.3. Reading: Planning a trip

Exercise 1: Work in groups. Discuss these questions.

1 When do you normally plan your holiday? (e.g. a year before, six months before, the week before)

2 What do you do before your holiday? Make a list and compare it with another pair.

get a passport, buy a plane ticket

Possible list:

get a passport, buy a plane ticket, book the hotel, book a restaurant, buy a tourism map, get a guide book, hire a tour guide, buy some medicine, change money, research the local food, research the local transport, check the weather forecast, pack a suitcase or backpack, buy a sim card, buy new clothes, buy new sunglasses, read about where you're going....

Exercise 2: Read the information for tourists and other visitors in Australia. Write the sub-headings in the information leaflet.

Road travel Weather Money Visas Language

Information for tourists and visitors in Australia

1. _____	3. _____
• You have to get a holiday visa from the Australian Embassy before you leave. • Tourists can stay for a maximum of six months. • You can't work in Australia without a work visa. You have to get a visa from the Australian Embassy in your country.	• Australia is a multicultural country so there are many different languages. • Most people speak or understand English.

2. _____	4. _____
• The currency is Australian dollars. • Most shops, hotels and banks in large cities accept credit cards. • In smaller towns, always have cash with you.	• The climate is different in different areas of the country. • Summers are very hot and the temperature is often over 40°C. Always use lots of sun cream and wear a hat.
5. _____
• Tourists don't have to get a new driving licence. But if you stay here for more than one year, you have to take an Australian driving test.

Answers: 1 Visas 2 Money 3 Language 4 Weather 5 Road travel

Exercise 3: Read the article again and choose the correct answer to each question.

- What do you need to do before you leave for a holiday in Australia?
 - Get a holiday visa from the Australian Embassy
 - Exchange your currency
 - Learn English
- How long can tourists stay in Australia without a work visa?
 - Three months
 - Six months
 - One year
- What is recommended if you visit smaller towns in Australia?
 - Carry a credit card
 - Always have cash with you
 - Stay in hotels
- What is the climate like in Australia during the summer?
 - Very cold
 - Mild and pleasant
 - Very hot, often over 40°C
- What do tourists need to do if they stay in Australia for more than one year and want to drive?
 - Take an Australian driving test
 - Get a new driving licence from their home country

c) They don't need to do anything

Answers:

1. a 2. b 3. b 4. c 5. a

Exercise 4: Read the comments (1-5) from visitors to Australia. Have the people followed the information in Exercise 4?

1 I've been a tourist here for seven months now. I'm going to stay a few weeks longer.

2 I got a work visa before I left home.

3 I've changed most of my money to US dollars.

4 I'm working here for six months. I don't know if I can drive here.

5 I've brought sun cream because of the heat.

Answers

2 and 5 followed the information (in the text it says: You can't work in Australia without a work visa and Always use lots of sun cream and wear a hat).

VOCABULARY: in another country

Exercise 1: Complete the information about Brazil with these words.

climate currency licence multicultural right-hand side temperature visa

- For employment in Brazil, most people need a work 1 _____
- The Brazilian real is the national 2 _____
- Portuguese is the official language, but Brazil is a 3 _____ country with over 200 different languages.
- Brazil is a huge country so the 4 _____ can change between the north and south. However, it's usually warm and in the summer the 5 _____ is often very high.
- Drive on the 6 _____ of the road.
- You have to carry your driving 7 _____ when you drive.

Exercise 2: Work in groups. Discuss these questions about Vietnam. How many answers do you know? Afterwards, compare your answers with the class.

1. What is the currency?
2. Do tourists need a visa?
3. What's the normal temperature in the summer and winter?
4. Is the climate different in different areas?
5. Which side of the road do you drive on?
6. Do you always have to carry your driving licence?
7. How multicultural is Vietnam?

5.2. Necessity and possibilities

5.2.1. Grammar: have to / don't have to, can / can't

Let's look at the following sentences about travelling to Australia. Answer these questions about the verbs in bold.

You have to get a holiday visa from the Australian Embassy.

Tourists don't have to get a new driving licence.

Tourists can stay for a maximum of six months.

You can't work in Australia without a work visa.

1 Which verb means it is necessary?

2 Which verb means it is possible?

3 Which verb means it is not necessary?

4 Which verb means it is not possible?

5 What form of the verb comes after the verbs in bold?

Answers: 1. have to 2. can 3. don't have to 4. can't 5. Infinitive (V)

Uses:

- “have to” express a necessity, and “don't have to” to express an unnecessary. It uses the auxiliary do to form questions and negatives.

e.g., Do you have to book the ticket online?

I don't have to go to school on Sundays.

- “Can” is used here to express possibilities, and “can't” (or the more formal full form cannot) is used to express impossibility.

e.g., They can take photos outside the museum

He can't smoke in the hospital.

Forms:

* Have to

Affirmative	I, we, you, they + have to + V. he, she, it + has to + V. You have to drive on the left side in England. She has to rent a tent for her camping holiday.
Negative	I, we, you, they + have to + V. he, she, it + has to + V. You don't have to work at the weekend. She doesn't have to get a tourist visa.
Questions	Do + I, we, you, they + have to + V? Does + he, she, it + have to + V?

	What/ Where.... + S + have to + V? Do you have to carry a driving licence? Does she have to hire a tour guide? Where do you have to go to get a visa?
Short answers	Do you have to carry a driving licence when they drive in Vietnam? Yes, I do./ No, I don't. Does she have to hire a tour guide for her sightseeing tour? Yes, she does./ No, she doesn't.

 Can

Affirmative	I, we, you, they + can + V. he, she, it + can + V You can change money at the airport. She can try the local dishes.
Negative	I, we, you, they + cannot + V. he, she, it + cannot + V. (cannot = can't) You cannot pay by credit card in the countryside. She cannot try the local dishes because it's very spicy.
Questions	Can + I, we, you, they + V? Can + he, she, it + can + V? What/ Where can + S + V? Can you pay by credit card? Can she buy a guide book at the bookshop? Where can I take a driving test?
Short answers	Can you pay by credit card? Yes, I can./ No, I can't. Can she buy a guide book at the bookshop? Yes, she can./. No, she can't.

Exercise 1: Match the beginnings of the sentences (1 - 6) with the endings (a - f).

1. I have	a. smoke in the airport.
2. They don't	b. can pay with dollars in this shop.
3. He can't	c. at reception after 3 p.m.
4. Tourists	d. telephone 999 for the police.
5. She can check in	e. to start work at nine every day.

6. In my country, you have to

f. have to get a visa.

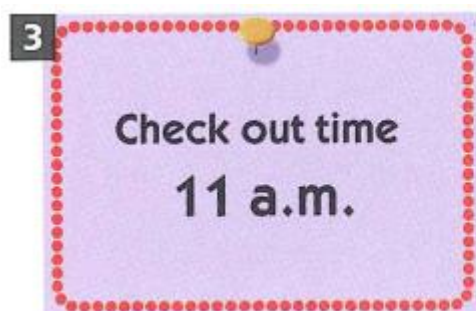

Answers: 1 - e 2 - f 3 - a 4 - b 5 - c 6 - d

Exercise 2: Look at these signs and notices for tourists. Choose the correct verbs.

1 You have to / can drive on the left-hand side.

2 Tourists can't / don't have to take photos here.

3 Guests have to / don't have to leave their room before 11 a.m.

4 Guests have to / don't have to pay.

5 You can / can't smoke in this area.

6 You can / can't use the hotel lift.

7 Business class passengers can't / don't have to wait.

8 All passengers have to / can show their passport.

Exercise 3: Work in pairs. Choose one situation (a-c) below and complete the sentences (1-4)

- a. Visiting another country as a tourist
- b. Studying at your language school
- c. Working for your company

1. You have to...
2. You don't have to.....
3. You can...
4. You can't....

Work with another pair. Tell them your sentences. Can they guess the situation?

Exercise 4 (Extra): Write a set of class rules or set of rules for visitors to your city. Think about the following topics:

- transport
- currency
- licence
- visa
- culture
- language