4.1.3 Grammar: Present Perfect Tense and Past Simple Tense

We use both Present Perfect and Past Simple to talk about the past.

Present Perfect (Simple)	Past Simple
Unfinished actions that started in the past and continue to the present:	Finished actions:

• I've known Julie for ten years (and I still know her).	• I knew Julie for ten years (but then she moved away and we lost touch).
A finished action in someone's life (when the person is still alive: life experience): • My brother has been to Mexico three times.	A finished action in someone's life (when the person is dead): • My great-grandmother went to Mexico three times.
A finished action with a result in the present: • I've lost my keys! (The result is that I can't get into my house now).	A finished action with no result in the present: • I lost my keys yesterday. It was terrible! (Now there is no result. I got new keys yesterday).
With an unfinished time word (this week, this month, today): • I've seen John this week.	With a finished time word (last week, last month, yesterday): • I saw John last week.

4.3 Good learning habits

4.3.1 Vocabulary: Daily habits

Habits can be good or bad. Good habits are those repetitive actions or behaviors you want to repeat. They have positive physical, emotional, or psychological consequences. Bad habits are those actions you repeat that have negative consequences.

The following habits are good:

- ✓ brushing your teeth twice a day (good for your teeth)
- ✓ swimming every morning (good for your health)
- ✓ practising the guitar for thirty minutes a day (you will play better)
- ✓ learning ten new English words every day (enlarge your vocabulary)

The following habits are bad:

- ✓ drinking lots of coffee every day (bad for your teeth and your health)
- ✓ biting your nails (injure your finger or get dirt or germs to your mouth)
- ✓ eating chocolate (make you fat)
- ✓ checking your phone during meals (bad for your stomach)

- ✓ smoking cigarettes (cause lung disease)
- ✓ putting sugar in tea (bad for health)
- ✓ not eating breakfast (bad for health)

The following habits are not good or bad:

- ✓ singing in the shower
- ✓ buying the same newspaper every day

4.3.2 Reading: Good learning habits

A Read the article and answer the questions.

Questions:

1. What is the Michael Phelps' habit before a race?
2. What has he won?
3. What examples of useful habits are there in paragraph 2?
4. Why does coffee and cake at the café become a habit?
5. Why is it a bad habit?
6. How long can it take to stop a bad habit?
7. How can you change a habit?

Answers:

1. He listened to loud hip-hop music.
2. 28 Olympic medals (23 of which are gold)

4. because it's fun
5. because you spend more money, eat too many calories and drink more coffee
6. up to 254 days
7. change the situation

B Read the article again. Match the paragraphs with the main ideas

- a. How we can have good and bad habits (paragraph 2)
- b. How good habits can help us do something well (paragraph 1)
- c. How we can change our habits (paragraph 3)

4.3.3 Speaking: How can I make a good habit?

A Writing

Choose one of these questions or think of your own question. Write advice about how you can do something well with good habits and routines.

How can you run a marathon?

How can you swim like an Olympic swimmer?

How can you stop drinking too much coffee?

How can you save money?

How can you play a musical instrument like a famous musician?

B Speaking

Work in pairs. Ask and answer the questions from Exercise 9 (p.122)
